

With several facilities in Munich, Infanterix has enriched the range of childcare with multilingual and multicultural nurseries and kindergartens for more than 10 years. Currently, we care for more than 1000 children aged between six months and six years. We employ more than 250 qualified staff in our facilities.

Qualified English Speaking Early Childhood Co-Educators / Assistant Teachers (f/m/d) Recognized as a “pädagogische Ergänzungskraft” in Germany

Job Description:

- Developing, implementing and encouraging of age appropriate learning strategies and activities within small groups
- Introducing the children to different languages and cultures, with the emphasis being on the linguistic development
- Performing of general child care routines. Including, but not limited to; diapering, napping and feeding the children
- Maintaining an open line of communication with parents and provide appropriate information
- Organizing and leading of excursions in the immediate vicinity
- Regular communication and information exchange with the parents
- Preparing developmental concepts and communicating this to the other team members during weekly meetings

Why Infanterix? What we have to offer:

- A friendly working environment with a responsible and dedicated international team
- An innovative supervision concept and intensive professional support
- Group related work in a team consisting of two to three educators per group
- Professional training – In House- as well as external
- Exciting career development opportunities within the company
- Support for professional training and further education
- Various team-building events, workshops etc.
- An annual 8 day concept phase for training and group discussions
- Sponsored German Courses
- Administrative Assistance for your Visa application, if required
- Health Insurance coverage
- Your monthly salary will vary depending on your profile
- You will be entitled to a salary increase during the second year of employment
- A monthly Munich allowance
- short term accommodation first (3 months)

Your Profile:

- Diploma in Nursery Nursing, B.A. of Social Work, B.A. in Psychology, B.A. in Montessori, Primary school teacher, B.A. in Applied Social Studies in Social Care or equivalent
- Proven working experience with children
- An open minded, creative and highly motivated individual with a positive attitude to work following a daily nursery and kindergarten routine
- Excellent communication skills for dealing with colleagues, parents and children
- Excellent English knowledge (Level C1/C2). Basic German knowledge would be of advantage

To apply for this position, you must submit the following documents per email to jobs@infanterix.de Cover Letter, CV, Certificates of Qualifications together with the Transcripts and Language Certificates. We look forward to receiving your application!

Note that by including all these documents, it will allow us to process your application faster and more efficiently.

Infanterix
HR department
Heiterwanger Str.36
81373 München

